GERMANS REACH COAST

ALLIES ARE VERY ACTIVE IN OPPOSITION TO GERMAN RIGHT WING

The Germans are now bombarding Rheims and are near the gates of Ostend, which is practically deserted. Another move against Paris is also thought to be contemplated.

The allies are hammering back the German right wing in Northern France and are said to be satisfied with recent developments and prospects for the immediate future, the advance by the allies all along the line in France more than counterbalancing German successes in Belgium.

The German staff is so satisfied with conditions that a transfer of troops from Belgium to the Russian frontier is being undertaken.

The latest message from Berlin says the German cavalry has entered Przemysl and the Russians have been unable to prevent the relief of the Galician fortress.

EIGHT-HOUR LAW INTENDED FOR THE LAZY

A law that would prohibit a merchant selling more than a stipulated amount of goods each day or which would make it impossible for a rancher to dispose of more than a stated amount of produce a day, would soon be branded by the courts as unconstitutional. Yet the people of California are asked to vote for a measure that would prohibit a workman from selling more than eight hours of labor each day. All a workman has to sell is his time, and it is now sought to tell him just how much of his time he can sell. Every laborer who votes in favor of the eight-hour law is certainly indifferent to his own best interests. One is almost tempted to say that such a man is too lazy to make as good a living as his family is entitled to.—South Pasadena Record.

ACTIVE IN POLITICS

CLUB WOMEN LISTEN TO DISCUSSION OF THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

At the open meeting of the Tropico Thursday afternoon club, held on Thursday afternoon in Knights of Pythias hall, an earnest and enthusiastic company of women assembled and gave the strictest and closest attention to the discussion of several of the proposed amendments. Dr. Jessie A. Russell, chairman of the legislative committee of the club, presented the program in such an interesting manner that the ladies were prepared to respond to the splendid talks given by the able speakers. Mrs. Seward A. Simons, president of the woman's legislative council and chairman of the department of legislation of the Los Angeles District Federation of Women's clubs, freely discussed and explained the twenty-second amendment, which will be submitted to the voters at the November election. Mrs. James Scherfee, president of the Outlook club, discussed in a most able manner amendments 2, 4, 13, 18, 39, 43 and 47. The splendid program was augmented by two violin solos rendered by Mrs. A. L. Paine, with Mrs. E. V. Lawton as accompanist. The selections rendered by Mrs. Paine were "Romaza" (Becker) and a Hungarian dance (Brahm). Plans were discussed for the part the club ladies will take in the carnival that is to be held in Tropico Oct. 31.

Mrs. David S. Forbes of Los Angeles visited a number of prominent society and club ladies in Glendale and Tropico and arrangements were made for the organization of a Fredericks club at the home of Mrs. J. R. White, corner of First and Orange streets, Wednesday afternoon. Among the ladies who have been invited to assist at Wednesday's meeting are Mrs. M. C. Button, Mrs. R. E. Chase, Mrs. C. H. Toll, Mrs. R. A. Peterson, Mrs. E. L. Parke, Mrs. Luther Brown, Mrs. R. W. Meeker, Mrs. D. H. Imler, Mrs. Daniel Campbell, Mrs. M. L. Tigh, Mrs. Arthur Campbell, Mrs. Stanley, Miss Cora Hickman, Miss Beulah Layton, Mrs. C. F. Parker, Mrs. Frank Vesper and Mrs. L. W. Bosserman. Among the speakers at Wednesday afternoon's meeting will be Mrs. David S. Forbes, Mrs. O. P. Clark, Mrs. William Baurhyte and Mrs. Calvin Hartwell.

Mr. and Mrs. James Crofthome have returned from San Diego and are pleasantly domiciled in their former home on Gardena avenue.

REV. NORTON TIES KNOT

Rev. C. R. Norton of 373 West Third street was called to Long Beach Thursday, where he had the delightful experience of uniting in the bonds of marriage two young people of families who are long-time friends of the Nortons.

The contracting parties were Miss Carrie Bradley of Long Beach and Mr. George Duncan of Larned, Kans. The pretty ring ceremony occurred at the home of the bride's mother at 723 Elm avenue in the presence of fifty invited guests. The young couple left following the ceremony for their home in Larned, Kans., going via San Francisco on the Lark.

MR. WHITING COMES TO GLENDAL

Mr. Calvin Whiting of Pasadena will remove with his wife and daughter to Glendale within a few days, and take up his permanent residence here. Mr. Whiting has purchased a half interest in the general realty firm formerly conducted under the name of Black & Lilly, and later operated by Mr. J. F. Lilly individually.

For the past fifteen years Mr. Whiting has been active in the insurance and realty business, for the greater portion of that time in Denver. For the past year he has been looking over Southern California with a view to establishing himself permanently, meantime making Pasadena his temporary home. That he has chosen Glendale from among the many attractive cities of the Southland is an evidence of his good judgment. The new firm will be known as Lilly & Whiting, and will continue to occupy the spacious quarters at 1106 West Broadway. Mr. Whiting will give special attention to the realty end of the business, while Mr. Lilly will devote himself more largely to handling loans. Both will give considerable time to the already large line of insurance agencies controlled by the firm.

EDUCATIONAL MEETING

At the high school this evening Judge Willis I. Morrison of the superior court will explain the chief points of the following amendments: No. 13, relative to the qualifications of voters at bond elections; as this is a law that vitally affects women particularly, all should hear it discussed. No. 44, dealing with the question of "minimum wage," providing for "the comfort, health, safety and welfare of any and all employees."

Judge Louis W. Meyers, also of the superior court, will speak on the following: No. 5, "investment companies act," which in the light of investment company conditions in Los Angeles during the last two years must be of special interest to our people; No. 9, relating to the same object as No. 5, but in a different way, as it is designed to defeat No. 5; No. 26, relative to the legislative control of irrigation, reclamation and drainage districts, and affecting particularly large areas in our Southern California; and No. 39, referring to the same as No. 26.

Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, who has a state-wide reputation as a forceful and intelligent speaker, will talk on No. 4, the "red light injunction act," or, as it will appear on the ballot, the "abatement of nuisances" act; No. 10, relative to the abolition of the poll tax; No. 20, relative to prize-fights, and No. 43, an act exempting educational institutions from taxation.

Dr. Jessie A. Russell, who has spoken extensively throughout the county on the amendments, will, if the time permits, touch briefly on the following: No. 18, referring to the non-sale of game with a view to protecting our wild animal and bird life; No. 35, relative to state building bonds; No. 36, relative to San Francisco state building act; No. 37, relative to the state fair grounds bonds; No. 38, relative to Los Angeles state building bonds, and No. 41, with reference to the miscarriage of justice.

This meeting, though arranged by the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher associations, is open to all who desire to become enlightened on these amendments. Everyone is heartily welcome to attend. The meeting will open promptly at 8 p. m. and will be held in the high school auditorium.

THEATER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kerker of the De Luxe apartments were host and hostess Thursday evening at a delightful dinner and theater party, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Grist and Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. McKee. After dinner at one of the downtown cafes, where special decorations and service were features of the dainty and delicious dinner, the party enjoyed the performance at the Orpheum, returning to Glendale by a late car after a most pleasant evening.

ORGANIZE FREDERICKS CLUB

On account of a change in the names of two of the officers of the club, we take pleasure in republishing the account of the organization as published in yesterday's issue of The News, with the change of the names of the officers:

Mrs. David T. Forbes of Los Angeles was in Glendale Thursday and organized an auxiliary to the Women's Fredericks club of Los Angeles for the women of Glendale, Tropico, Burbank and Eagle Rock, with the following officers: Mrs. John Robert White, president; Mrs. Wm. J. Button, first vice-president; Mrs. R. E. Chase, second vice-president; Miss Cora Hickman, secretary, and Mrs. R. A. Peterson, treasurer. A large number of Glendale ladies joined as charter members of the club.

The first meeting will be held on Wednesday afternoon, October 23, at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. White, 101 Orange street. The speakers will be Mrs. O. P. Clark and Mrs. Wm. Bauerheit of Los Angeles and Mrs. Calvin Hartwell of Pasadena. All ladies interested will be most welcome at this meeting.

CITY BEAUTIFUL MEETING

There will be a meeting of the City Beautiful association at the city hall tomorrow evening at half past seven. All interested are cordially invited to be present.

Miss George Duffet, 1008 Chestnut street, was among the guests who were entertained at a beautiful luncheon given Wednesday by Mrs. D. W. O'Brien in her home on Buckingham road, Los Angeles.

VIEW THE WASH

SUPERVISORS SET MEETING FOR WEDNESDAY FOLLOWING IN- SECTION THIS MORNING

Members of the Los Angeles county board of supervisors met with certain citizens of Glendale and Tropico this forenoon and viewed the flood path of the Verdugo wash from a point on the San Fernando road south of Tropico to its source in the hills surrounding La Crescenta.

They also visited the region of the Sycamore canyon wash.

As is known by many of our readers, proceedings have been commenced by the county for the improvement of the Verdugo canyon wash, and everything was running along smoothly until citizens of Tropico entered a protest, claiming that they should not be included in the assessment district.

The board of supervisors now having gone over the entire wash territory, and having heard the story from citizens of Tropico and Glendale, are in a position to decide for themselves what should be done.

Chairman Pridham of the county board has called a conference meeting for next Wednesday forenoon at the rooms of the board in the court house, and at that meeting a committee representing Glendale and a committee representing Tropico will be present to talk the wash conditions over with the board, and if possible decide upon a plan satisfactory to all concerned.

A CONCERN NOT AFRAID OF BUSINESS

To a casual observer, it would seem that there were business houses in Glendale and vicinity who are afraid of securing additional trade, judging from their apparent hatred of publicity. In other words, their advertising is conspicuous on account of its absence, and it is from such firms that news comes that "times are hard" and "business is poor."

The News is glad to draw the attention of its readers to the ad of the Tropico Mercantile company, a grocery store that does by far the largest business of any store in the San Fernando valley. This concern does not merely advertise one week and take a month's vacation, but our subscribers have found its money-saving specials in the paper each Friday and sometimes oftener for over a year. This store uses no trading stamps, no premiums—just advertises quality groceries at the lowest prices commensurate with good service—until it has won the confidence of a large proportion of the grocery trade of this vicinity, and their five deliveries are busy every day of the week in supplying their hundreds of patrons in Tropico and Glendale.

It is firms such as the Tropico Mercantile company that are alive, enterprising, up-to-date and that advertise, that win success in a field where competition is keen.

PARENT-TEACHER MEETING

Standing room only and not much of that, either, was evidenced by the large and interested throng of mothers who attended the Broadway Parent-Teacher association meeting at the Broadway school Thursday afternoon to hear Mrs. Estelle Lawton Lindsey, candidate for the assembly speak on the amendments to be voted on Nov. 3.

Besides this interesting speaker, the program consisted of songs by the fourth grade of the school, recitations by Julia Robinson and the answering of questions pertaining to school work, etc., by Prof. Richardson D. White.

As usual, Mrs. A. C. Anderson, the president of the association, presided, and light refreshments were served by Mesdames Richmond and Preston, assisted by the ladies of the hospitality committee.

Thursday's meeting was the second of the new school year and from reports was the best and largest attended meeting the Broadway association has ever held. It is hoped next month will find as many more present.

NEW CONFECTIONERY OPENS TOMORROW

H. M. Lake has leased the store room at 1107 West Broadway in the Central building and announces the opening of a high-class confectionery tomorrow (Saturday). The interior of the room has been remodeled and redecorated and a very high-grade line of fixtures have been installed, making this one of the most beautiful stores in Glendale. Mr. Lake has been identified in the confectionery business in Los Angeles for a number of years and without doubt will make a success of the new store in Glendale, if a central location and a quality stock bring business, which they invariably do.

A DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

YELLOW AND WHITE LUNCHEON AND AUCTION PARTY IS ENJOYED

No detail was overlooked in the preparations for a large luncheon presided over Wednesday by Mrs. R. J. Hinchcliff in her home, 1308 Chestnut street, and not a moment passed that was not filled with pleasure.

The rooms given over to the affair were bright with showers of huge, shaggy yellow and white chrysanthemums, which bloomed forth from the ends of tall stems thickly covered with soft green foliage. The same combination prevailed on the tables where an elaborate course luncheon was daintily served and which were later deserted by the guests for a game of cards.

Auction bridge was the afternoon's diversion, Mrs. C. M. Good and Mrs. C. H. Woolsey having been the respective winners of first and consolation prizes. The tally cards corresponded in color combination and adornment with the decorations and flowers used and scores were kept by the following guests: Mrs. C. O. Pulliam, Mrs. C. M. Good, Mrs. F. B. McKenney, Mrs. J. Herbert Smith, Mrs. Willis M. Kimball, Mrs. C. H. Woolsey, Mrs. Herman Paine, Mrs. Francis Flansburg, Mrs. R. E. Hewes, Mrs. Zell Talbert, Mrs. J. Miner, Mrs. Minnie Bridgeman, Mrs. Harriett Wadleigh, Mrs. Benoit, Miss Louise Wadleigh, Miss Olive Williams and the charming hostess.

GLENDAL THEATER AGAIN FEATURES COMEDY

The management of the Glendale theater has been fortunate enough to secure the services of Arthur Breton, lately of New York, and one of the best motion picture operators obtainable. Mr. Breton is highly recommended and with the class of pictures being shown, should be an additional drawing card.

Friday's program features "Lucille Love," and as those who saw the last series are still talking about it, the house should be packed. The other drama is "The Fight in Lonely Gulch," produced by the Western Frontier Company. There are two exceptionally good comedies, viz: "The Triangle Marriage" and "Tango vs. Poker," both full of laughs.

Saturday's program again puts comedy to the front, and from the size of last Saturday's attendance, comedy appeals to the picture theater goers of Glendale. "The Flirt" is a juvenile comedy in which Billy Jacobs plays the lead. "Ike Goes Astray" is another good one, and most entertaining. The French Eclair company produces a split reel, two on one reel, comedy that is beautifully hand colored in the national colors. It is called "Prince Willy" and "Natty and His Father" and in the latter a two-year-old boy plays the lead with astonishing success. The drama is well portrayed in "When Fate Disposes," a wonderfully interesting two-reel Rex production.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB SHAKESPEARE SECTION

On next Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Shakespeare section of the Tuesday Afternoon club will hold the first meeting at the residence of the chairman, Mrs. W. E. Evans, 113 Orange street.

This section has just been organized a month or so, the organization being effected at a special meeting during the summer, after which no other meetings were held, so that Monday will be the first study meeting of the section.

"The Merchant of Venice," Shakespeare's best known comedy, will be taken up, as well as a brief outline of Shakespeare's life and the value of his dramas to the age in which he wrote.

Many members are already enrolled in the section, and an invitation is extended to all club members who are interested in Shakespeare and in the growth and advancement of study courses within the Tuesday Afternoon club, to become identified with this section.

Due to the amount of twenty-five cents per month will be charged to club members, and guests will always be welcomed on payment of ten cents at the door. The proceeds from these charges go to the building fund of the mother club.

Miss Bertha L. Jackson will instruct the class. Miss Jackson is a graduate of the Cincinnati School of Expression and a student of the principal of Emerson college. She has had seven years' experience as a teacher and it was under her direction that the recent Fiesta at La Ramada was staged.

The women of the Episcopal church will hold a food sale at Shaver's grocery tomorrow, beginning at 11 o'clock a. m.

LARGE DANCING PARTY

PROMINENT LOCAL PEOPLE TO ACT AS PATRONS AND PATRONESSES

The following well-known local residents will act as patrons and patronesses for the large dancing party to be given by the St. Margaret Girls in the Masonic temple, 532 South Brand boulevard, tonight:

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Beamon, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Faries, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Peckham, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Pulliam, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Worley, Mrs. Joseph Stagner, Mrs. C. Irving Mills, Mrs. T. S. Provolt, Mrs. Richard H. Wells, Mrs. W. W. Kirkby and Mrs. Sarah Pitcher.

Dr. J. L. Flint, assisted by the patrons and Messrs. E. M. Polley and Norman N. Badger, Jr., will act as the floor committee.

Hostesses for the evening will be the executive board, which consists of the Misses Harriett M. Wells, president; Mattie Belle Provolt, first vice-president; Elizabeth Lange, second vice-president; Cecelia Wilson, treasurer, Ethel Land, secretary, and the following members: The Misses Lilian Mills, Katherine Wells, Clara Provolt, Dorothy Smith, Bessie Provolt, Olga Pirt, Gertrude Champlain, Irene Reed, Amy Bowerfind, Athena Pirt, Ethel Reed, Mayra McCann, Pauline Sholz, Eva Black, Edith Foss and Mesdames Frae Morse Wells, Stella Scott Curran and Arline Hallahan.

Owing to their absence from the city, the Misses Roberta Rand and Elizabeth Russell, both of whom are active St. Margaret members, will be unable to attend.

CHAPTER L. P. E. O. HOLDS ALL- DAY MEETING

The first regular all-day P. E. O. meeting of the new year was held by Chapter L in the home of Mrs. Mae Dickman, 526 West Fifth street, on Wednesday of this week. A large and enthusiastic attendance gathered at the usual hour and after the formalities of a business session, presided over by the president, Mrs. Mary Blackburn, the meeting adjourned for a delicious luncheon served by Mrs. Dickman, Mrs. R. A. Blackburn, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, Mrs. Gus H. Pulliam and Mrs. H. D. Goss.

In the afternoon a philanthropic program was given, the chief topic of which pertained to the P. E. O. fund for worthy girls. Sewing for charity was also indulged in, lasting as it did until late in the afternoon, when the club disbanded to meet again at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 28, in the home of Mrs. H. D. Goss, 714 West Fifth street. At this meeting Mrs. Dessa M. Fultz, state organizer, will be present from Santa Barbara.

TEACHERS GUESTS OF HONOR

The home of Mrs. Nanno Woods, 1222 Milford, was the setting for an unusually happy gathering Thursday afternoon, when she entertained nearly forty of her immediate neighbors in honor of the teachers of the Columbus avenue school.

The rooms were decorated with huge bouquets of home-grown yellow and white chrysanthemums, which appeared everywhere in profusion, and were greatly admired by the guests.

The hostess was assisted in dispensing her charming hospitality by Mrs. Vivian Webb, one of Glendale's artists, who delighted her hearers with two piano selections, the Rondo by Mendelssohn and a waltz by Schubert, charmingly interpreted. Mrs. Woods sang a pretty little song, "Just Her Way," and her beautiful contralto voice was heard in the measures of that old yet ever-new song, "My Rosary," which she gave most sweetly and feelingly. Mrs. Woods also gave a reading, "Little Red Shoes," which is based on a German fairy tale, and which has a musical setting, which Mrs. Webb interpreted. This beautiful little arrangement was brought to this country by Mrs. Woods and it was probably never given here before.

After this delightful program all adjourned to the shade of the arbor, where cool, refreshing drinks and cakes were partaken of and a happy social time enjoyed.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

AN EXCELLENT PROPOSITION

That the little ones in Europe (who might otherwise be overlooked) may still have something of Christmas joy, it is now proposed to send from the United States a "Christmas ship," a plan that will undoubtedly appeal to kind-hearted people all over this broad and fortunate land, specially to those in sympathy with child life.

It is the intention of proponents of the enterprise to load a government vessel, presumably a battleship or armored cruiser, with Christmas gifts for the war-made orphans of Europe and to send it across the Atlantic on its mission of joy and gladness to the unfortunate children of the old world. Warm clothing, as well as toys and other objects of childish delight, will compose the unique cargo, which will carry Christmas cheer to thousands of children who would not otherwise taste the joys of the coming Yuletide.

The plan has the sanction of President Wilson and Secretary Bryan, who believe that the "Christmas ship" will be a factor in promoting international good will and thus make easier the way for bringing peace among the warring nations. How far the ship and its generous mission will contribute to that desired end is rather doubtful, but the spectacle of benevolent people of this great republic reaching across the Atlantic to give joy to innocent children whose lives have been darkened by the most terrible of wars, cannot fail to touch even the most iron-hearted of Europe's leaders. It will be accepted at least as an assurance that the United States is sincere in its wish to promote peace as well as to alleviate, so far as it may, the appalling misery that ever follows the blight of war.

NO NEED OF FORTS

It is noteworthy that, whenever army movements are described, in accounts of the war, there is constant mention of strong fortifications along boundary lines. All European countries are fortified camps. Forts of great strength dot all boundary lines, and all cities whose situations make them of strategic importance are defended by elaborate fortifications. These facts are a revelation to American citizens who know nothing and think nothing about fortifications. They do know that there are some forts, so-called, about New York and Boston, and they remember that some guns are supposed to be in position about San Francisco; there are to be some at Colon and Panama, and some are to be placed near the harbor of Los Angeles.

Yet to speak of these as fortifications would provoke a derisive smile from a Frenchman or a German. Then, just think of the 3000-mile border between Canada and the United States. Not a fort, not a gun on the whole long line. If the United States wanted to give a salute to a passing vessel, nothing more noisy could be found than a blacksmith's anvil.

These facts, ludicrous when one thinks of national defense, tell their own eloquent story. European nations expect war; war has been their chief concern for centuries, and they construct forts to ward off enemies as people here build houses to protect against storms. The United States no more expects to fight Canada than California expects to fight Nevada, or than Smith expects to fight Jones. It is a hundred years since American soldiers were in Canada. Energetic young farmers go over the line, buy farms and raise wheat, and the Canadians move over into New England and engage in farming or work in factories. And that is all. This marks the difference between war and peace, between distrust and confidence, between enemies and friends. May the conduct of this government ever be such that no neighboring nation will care to build a fort on our borders.

ASK COMMISSION'S AID

Out of 342 P. E. employees residing in Pasadena, 214 have petitioned the city commission not to grant licenses to motor bus drivers. In the petition it was set out that the Pacific Electric company has a payroll of $35,000 per month in Pasadena; that the motor busses are interfering with the business of the street railway company to such an extent that it threatens to throw many of the P. E. employees out of work and that the payroll would be greatly reduced.

NORTH GLENDALE

Mr. George H. Marsh of 1645 Ruth street is enjoying a few days' vacation, which time will be spent hunting in the Verdugo hills.

Friends of Mrs. James Parnell of 1638 Ruth street will be very sorry to hear she is confined to her bed because of a serious illness.

Mrs. Lucius F. Drake of 1657 Ruth street entertained as her guest at luncheon Thursday Mrs. Seth Noble of Los Angeles, formerly a resident of Plankinton, S. D.

Mr. J. E. McKeever of 421 North Brand boulevard returned home last Wednesday from a business trip of several days at Independence, Cal., coming back by motor with Dr. Lake of Independence, who was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. McKeever on Wednesday evening.

Miss Amy Blanchard of Ivy street, Glendale, was the guest of Mrs. H. F. Fryer of 1431 North Pacific avenue Thursday.

The Queen Esther Circle of the West Glendale M. E. church entertained the circles of the First M. E. church and Casa Verdugo last Saturday afternoon at the home of their superintendent, Miss Clara Midcalf, of 118 South Brand boulevard. The attractive home was beautifully decorated for the occasion in gold and purple, the Queen Esther colors. After a short business session at which Miss Ruth Spafford, president of the West Glendale circle, presided, an informal program was enjoyed. The Misses Virginia and Louise Fambrough rendered a duet on the piano and Miss Freda Baker sang a solo in an especially pleasing manner. Mrs. E. J. Miller, secretary of the young people's work of Southern California, gave an interesting and instructive talk on the Queen Esther work in general. Miss Midcalf also spoke to the young people most encouragingly. Delicious ice cream, yellow in color, with fragrant violets encircling the dainty dishes for decoration, with cake, was served by the charming hostess, while each guest had pretty bunches of violets fastened to the class badge for souvenirs of the delightful occasion. The guests of honor were Mrs. E. J. Miller of Pasadena, Miss Nan Brown, superintendent of Casa Verdugo circle; Mrs. Lacy of the First M. E. church circle, and Mr. and Mrs. Henderson of West Glendale. Later Miss Midcalf received the appointment of district secretary, having charge of the Queen Esther work in the Pasadena district, to the delight of her many young friends.

TOO HEARTY A DIET

A young Englishman came to Washington and devoted his days and nights to an earnest endeavor to drink all the Scotch whisky there was. He couldn't do it, and presently he went to a doctor, complaining of a disordered stomach.

"Quit drinking!" ordered the doctor.

"But, my dear sir, I can't. I get so thirsty."

"Well," said the doctor, "when ever you are thirsty, eat an apple instead of taking a drink."

Wall street might close up shop and the rest of the country hardly know that anything unusual had happened.

Mr. Francis Goldsborough of Adams street, who for some time has been confined to his bed as the result of a severe illness, is greatly improved and able to be up and about a short while each day.

Mrs. George Eley of 1210 Lomita avenue, together with Mrs. G. McCann of West Seventh street, are spending the day with friends in La Crescenta, to which place they motored from Montrose.

Mrs. Frank B. McKenney, Mrs. J. Herbert Smith, Mrs. C. S. Westlake and Mrs. O. E. Clemons, of Glendale and Tropic, are among the guests who are being entertained today by Mrs. R. E. Hewes in her Los Angeles home.

As usual, the Cherokee club enjoyed their monthly dancing party at the Masonic temple Thursday evening, the same merry crowd being present to enjoy the lively music furnished by Merrill's orchestra of Los Angeles.

Next Sunday will be temperance day at the First Baptist church in Glendale, at 9:30 a. m. Rev. Johnson, pastor of the Methodist church, will speak on "California Dry." There will be special music. A collection will be taken.

Messrs. H. M. Robertshaw, Kenton Robertshaw and Ray Bentley, all of Glendale, returned Thursday evening from a two days' hunting expedition at Elizabeth lake, where they succeeded in bagging a number of nice fat ducks.

Mrs. W. Grindell and daughter, Miss Ada Grindell, recent arrivals from St. Louis, are guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flower, 526 South Adams street, having come to Glendale to spend the winter. Mrs. Grindell is Mrs. Flower's mother.

The death of Mrs. Harry Goldsborough, daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Goldsborough of South Adams street, who passed very suddenly away in her home, 3750 Harvard boulevard, Los Angeles, last Sunday, came as a surprise to many in Glendale, where she was well known.

A large attendance is expected at the chicken pie supper to be given tonight at the Presbyterian church by the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society in honor of the new members who were welcomed into the church on Sunday last. The dinner hours have been set for 5:30 until 7 o'clock, and will be followed by a well arranged program.

A SUCCESSFUL SALE

The fall introductory sale of the Jackson Furniture company has exceeded all expectations. Very low prices were quoted on mattresses, springs and other staple lines of furniture, and buyers have responded to the circulars advertising the event as well as the ads in the Evening News. Mr. Jackson advertising in this paper exclusively.

TEA FOR LADIES' AID

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society of the West Glendale M. E. church, a very pretty tea was given Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. S. M. Collum, 1543 Colorado boulevard, where 'midst the glow of bright fresh blossoms and greenery, needlework, games and a short program of music and readings occupied the best part of three hours, during which a dainty collation was served by the gracious hostess and assisting members of the Ladies' Aid. Among those who received the guests, who numbered over thirty, were the Rev. H. J. Hartzell and Mesdames Morrison, Hoskyns, Bruce, Adams, Lyons, Van Leuven, Pixley, Westlake, Bradley, Cook and Monroe.

PRISCILLA CLUB

Thursday was "pudding day" for the Priscilla club, inasmuch as the eight Priscilla club members, who were so delightfully entertained at luncheon Thursday by Mrs. J. H. Anderson in her home, 1530 Salem street, each brought a pudding recipe to inscribe in the new cook book started at the first meeting of the winter season.

Mrs. Anderson used roses, shading from deep to the most delicate tints of pink as house decorations, a few buds having been combined with feathery fern and arranged in the center of the dining-room table, at which covers for a deliciously appointed luncheon were set for the eight Priscilla members, all of whom will be entertained in the same manner by Mrs. Arthur Chapman in her home, 1463 Salem street, Thursday, October 29.

GLENDALE PASTOR CHOSEN

At the twenty-eighth annual meeting of the Congregational churches and ministers of Southern California, held this week in Pasadena, Rev. E. H. Willisford, pastor of the First Congregational church of Glendale, was elected scribe for the session and also registrar for the next three years.

This meeting was very largely attended and much interest shown in all lines of church work.

Dr. Washington Gladden, the noted Congregational preacher and writer, gave several scholarly and illuminating addresses.

President Blaisdell of Pomona college announced that the college was raising $1,100,000 toward its equipment and endowment—$900,000 is already raised. Over $2000 was pledged at this meeting. The next meeting will be with the new Congregational church at Venice.

CROP IS HALF SOLD

That more than fifty per cent of the raisin crop under the control of the California Associated Raisin company, which constitutes about ninety per cent of the whole crop of California, has already been booked on orders from the East, is the statement made by James Madison, manager of the company. This is an unusually heavy booking for the end of the first week of October. It is especially noticeable because of the good work done in freeing the market of the hold-over crop of raisins of the 1913 crop, as was done by the association during July and August. The outlook for the raisin may be said to be very good.

Perhaps it were better to represent justice as open-eyed and alert to detect and correct injustice, rather than blindfolded, as symbolizing impartiality. Let the great goddess keep her scales evenly balanced in fairness, knowing no distinctions among men, but let her be wide-eyed for injustice has a habit of sneaking up on the blindfolded and taking advantage of them.

In civic affairs, it is well to smoke the peace-pipe more and use the snickersnee less.

Deadly infection is vying with bullet and shell in decimating the armies of Europe.

Anyway, American women may be happy, whoever originates the fashions.

Reports persist that Przemysl has fallen. Stumbled over its name, perhaps.

VALLEY VIEW

O. C. Lane and wife have moved into the house at 1461 Vine street.

Mr. Vivrett and wife of 1559 Vine street are the proud parents of a fine boy, standard weight. Both the mother and child are doing well.

J. M. Ridgely and wife have moved from 1552 Vine street to Hollywood.

F. Frankenstein and his new wife are snugly domiciled at 1446 Vine street. Mr. Frankenstein is leader of the big orchestra at the Orpheum and is known to fame as the genius who wrote the music to "I Love You, California."

Mrs. Janette Beale and a friend, Mrs. Welch, arrived Wednesday from Juneau, Alaska, to visit the former's parents, Mr. Casselman and wife, of 1551 Vine street.

Walter Deacon and Ormond Bradley of Oak street returned home on Tuesday from Arrowhead, where they had been working on the rebuilding of a high tension electric line.

The fire plugs recently placed along Columbus avenue at each street crossing make the residents on both sides of the said street feel much safer in case a fire should break out. When Pacific avenue is similarly treated, Valley View will be fully protected.

MISS EMERY IS SURPRISED BY FRIENDS

Miss Waunita Emery, who celebrated her seventeenth birthday on Thursday, October 15, was greatly surprised in the evening to find the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery, 117 South Kenwood street, thronged with friends who surreptitiously gathered together to wish her many happy returns of the day.

Miss Waunita had planned to enjoy the theater with her parents as a celebration, but before she could escape, the house was filled and the fun was on, the guests bringing with them ice cream, a real birthday cake with pink candles and rosebuds, and gifts for the honoree, who responded very prettily.

The evening was spent in playing various games and terminated in the serving of the delicious refreshments furnished by the following guests: Misses Jenny Lacy, Joyce Dominy, Evangeline Hunchberger, Margaret Lusby, Esther Schremp, Ernestine Lyons and the Messrs. Chanslor Livingston, Edgar Boss, Edward Seay, George Hastings, Mark Francy and Chester Mitchell.

MUNSON SAYS

Never have we been so busy answering telephone calls as the last few days. Since our announcement that we would give to the boys and girls under high school age, making the most words from the letters included in "Munson, the Drug Man," valuable prizes, dozens of "kiddies" as well as their mothers, have called us, asking about the prizes, which are: First prize, a 3-A folding Brownie, value $10; second prize, a Thermos Kit to carry your lunch in; third prize, a dandy brush and comb; fourth prize, a two-pound box of candy; fifth prize, a pound box of candy. The contest closes Saturday, Nov. 7. There's still plenty of time to enter.

A lady came into our store yesterday to order one of our delicious soda specials, and told a good joke on herself. It seems that although she and her husband are moving picture people, she lays claim to being quite a cook, her specialty being pies and cakes. On Wednesday afternoon she had baked three apple pies, and that evening about midnight awoke with a start, thinking she heard some one in the house, and called to her husband, "Charles, somebody has broke into the kitchen and will get my pies." Half asleep, he answered: "Well, what do we care, just so they don't die in the house?"

This same changeable weather that has given so many people colds and coughs has done nobly in introducing our great cough remedy, No. 170. While we don't wish anyone ill luck, yet we're glad to have the chance to prove to the people of Glendale that this cough cure certainly does the work.

We'll disagree with any Glendale girl who says the young men of this town are not gallant, for since getting in the Morse brand of Famous Chocolates, we've had scores of young men in buying Masterpiece and Bitter Sweet Chocolates, and what's more, there are so many repeat orders that the girls must be sending them back for more.

See the prizes for the boys and girls entering our contest in the window next week.

Get the habit of meeting on the corner.

PASTOR TROY'S FRIENDLY TALK WITH THE CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS

"God is All in all," Mary Baker Eddy.

The first "All" is capitalized, the second is not. It would seem to the logician that here are two distinct propositions. (1) God is All. (2) God is in all.

Does Mrs. Eddy teach that God is in all because he is All? Would she repudiate the teaching that God may be All and yet, in certain senses, not in all?

The philosophy of Christian Science would agree that God is All and because he is All, he is in all, and that God cannot be All and at the same time not be in all.

Thus in her first fundamental proposition the founder of Christian Science admits a twofold situation, namely, God is All and God is in all, and argues by the assertion of these two distinct propositions to a third proposition, namely, because God is All, therefore God is in all. All of which is true in a general sense.

Theologians, however, are wont to qualify the "allness" of God. Likewise, they distinguish between the different senses in which God may be conceived to be in all. God may be All in many senses of the term. He certainly is the creator of all. He certainly is the ruler of all. He certainly is the judge of all, etc.

God may be in all in many senses. He may be in a stone by the law of cohesion holding millions of atoms in one solid mass. He may be in a tree operating by vegetable life to the performance of definite functions. He may be in a dumb brute ruling its members by instinct. He may be in the mind of a poet operating by phantasy and imagination to the production of an epic.

Very little is gained by the simple statement that God is All in all. Particulars are essential to a proper and practical conclusion.

When my Christian Science friend looks upon me with hypnotic, mysterious eyes and in attitudinal profundity asserts "God is All in all," he is really talking poetry and is far from exact science or theology.

Take the proposition, "God is the creator of all." Does it not imply a creation? Now even if we declare the creation all mind and no matter it still remains logical to affirm a creation and a Creator. Now where there is a distinction there must be a difference.

It would be reasonable to postulate God the creator of all and unreasonable to postulate creation the all of the Creator.

It is reasonable to believe that God expresses himself in creation, but unreasonable to declare this expression of God the all of God.

A good wife was presented with an account book enclosing one hundred dollars. The success of her husband's brutal hint was revealed a week later when happening upon the account book the frugal husband opened to the first page and read, "received one hundred dollars," and glancing to the opposite page he read, "spent one hundred dollars."

Mary Baker Eddy would have been a better theologian had she stopped to specify. To postulate vague generalities often proves successful in impressing the unsophisticated, but there will always be thinkers who demand specification.

In conclusion, it is reasonable to believe that God is all, and yet there is that which in certain defined senses is not God. (For example, we distinguish between God and the expression of God.) It is also reasonable to believe that in a certain sense God is in all, and yet in some specific senses God is not in all. (For example, God was all and in all spiritually and morally with respect to the character of Christ, while we are perfectly right in believing that morally and spiritually God was not all and in all with respect to the character of Judas Iscariot.)

HE LOVED HIS WIFE—BUT

A Mobile manufacturer tells of a ducky who came to him one day with a request to be excused from work the next day, explaining that his wife had died and that he must attend the funeral.

This request, seeming reasonable, was granted, but after a lapse of some weeks the ducky again asked a day off.

"All right, Frank," said the boss.

"What's it for this time?"

"This time I get married."

"So soon? Why, it's only been a few weeks since you buried your wife!"

"Sure!" said Frank, "but I don't hold spite long."
